Cultivating Curiosity: Inspiring the Creative Child

Chelsea Short

Chelsea Short is in her 14th year of teaching general elementary music to Pre-K through 5th grade students in San Antonio, TX. In addition to teaching elementary students, Chelsea is an adjunct professor for the University of Incarnate Word in San Antonio, teaching their elementary music methods course. She has also served as a guest lecturer for Trinity University, serves as a cooperating teacher for practicum students and student teachers from several local universities, and is an AOSA mentor teacher. Chelsea is a past president of Central Texas Orff, and presents at the local, state and national level for school districts, Orff chapter workshops and conferences. Outside of the classroom, Chelsea loves spending time with her wonderful husband, four-year old daughter and twin one-year old boys.

Workshop:

Students are the most engaged and creative when they are curious! Come explore ways to spark that curiosity and cultivate it into active music making, improvising and composing. Using children's literature, cultural connections, Orff Schulwerk volumes, and creative movement, attendees will dive into ways to encourage creativity and ownership in the elementary musician.
